DETAILED ACTION

1. The drawings are objected to because figures 6-7 should be labeled "Related Art" as disclosed in specification. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2622

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-4 and 6-7 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Movshovich et al., US 6,956,621.

In considering claim 1,

- a) the claimed amplifier circuit... is met programmable amplifier 104 (Fig 3)
- b) the claimed a clamp circuit... is met by the clamping circuit (which removes DC component, see Figs 2-3)
- c) the claimed a time constant... is met by time constant (Fig 3) configuration which includes C1, R2, based upon the comparison via 110 (which includes the gain amplified signal with a reference black level).

In considering claim 2,

- a) the claimed a clamp circuit... is met by the circuit as shown in Fig 3, where the clamp enable pulse signal from driver 119.
- b) the claimed a pulse width... is met where the width of the pulse is adjusted via the tristate buffer 113 of driver 119 based upon the comparison between the gain amplified signal and the black level signal via comparator 110.

In considering claim 3,

- a) the claimed a comparison circuit... is met by comparator 110 which compares the gain amplified signal with a reference black level (Fig 3).
- b) the claimed a clamp pulse generating circuit... is met by driver 119 which adjusts/outputs the appropriate signal from tri-state buffer 113 based upon the filtered 111 compared signal result.

In considering claim 4,

Movshovich discloses that the gain of the signal is varied in a steps, where the driver adjusts the step varied signal according to the compared results via comparison 110.

In considering claims 6-7,

Movshovich disclose that the gain of the video signal is adjusted for the entire line, which is adjusted once compared to the black level reference value, via comparison 110.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 5 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure—see newly cited references on attached form PTO-892.

The Patent Electronic Business Center (EBC) allows USPTO customers to retrieve data, check the status of pending actions, and submit information and applications. The tools currently available in the Patent EBC are Patent Application Information

Retrieval (PAIR) and the Electronic Filing System (EFS).

PAIR (<http://pair.uspto.gov>) provides customers direct secure access to their own patent application status information, as well as to general patent information publicly available. EFS allows customers to electronically file patent application documents securely via the Internet. EFS is a system for submitting new utility patent applications and pre-grant publication submissions in electronic publication-ready form. EFS includes software to help customers prepare submissions in extensible Markup Language (XML) format and to assemble the various parts of the application as an electronic submission package. EFS also allows the submission of Computer Readable Format (CRF) sequence listings for pending biotechnology patent applications, which were filed in paper form.
